

Year 1 Spring Term

Life in the Past

Chronology puts events in the order they happened.

A timeline represents a period of time, marking important events in order.

A decade =

We can learn about the past by looking at photographs, talking to people who lived during that time and viewing artefacts.

Toys, household objects and even the way we listen to music has changed a lot over time.