Common good

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. ⁵ It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. ⁶ Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. ⁷ It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

Dialogue

- Describe some facts about the life of St Paul and explain why he is an important figure for Christians. U4.6.1
- Make links between Cor 13:1-7, 13 and the theological virtues. U4.6.2 Recount some facts about a different liturgical tradition within the Catholic Church. U4.6.3
- Recognise some reasons why different liturgical rites happen in different parts of the world. U4.6.4
- Describe some ways Christians in their local area work together for the benefit of the whole community (or the common good)

Encounter

- Make simple links and connections between some Islamic religious laws, beliefs, worship, and life (e.g., what the holy month of Ramadan means to British Muslims and the importance of fasting in Islam). U3.6.3
- Describe the five pillars of Islam and why they are an important part of Islamic faith and religious practice for British Muslims today.
